

Variety RESURRECTION RUN

15-20 November 2020
variety.org.au/resrun

The Variety Resurrection Run will explore the rural areas of our vast state, travelling to places that are not your normal tourist hotspots. You may know the major towns we will be travelling through - you won't necessarily know how you're going to get there.

The Variety Resurrection Run is not a race or a rally or a contest of speed of any kind, it is simply fun!

We care about our entrants, so we travel with volunteer mechanics and medical teams to keep you and your car safe plus a photographer and videographer to capture all the best moments.

Who can enter?

Anyone over 18 years of age with a passion for driving and exploring with a sense of humour, a tolerance for dust and discomfort, plus a real yearning to meet up with friends they haven't met yet.

What does it cost?

You will need a minimum fundraising donation of $2,000 to enter - this can be via a range of fundraising methods including sponsorship, donations from family and friends, raffles, events and challenges etc. Upon registration, we will set you up with a fundraising page to assist you in your fundraising endeavours. There will also be a small provisions fee to cover some meals and miscellaneous items supplied on the event. Entrants are required to fund their own accommodation, fuel and car related costs.

Accommodation

Entrants must book their own accommodation. There are a range of accommodation styles to suit everyone's tastes and budgets. In some towns accommodation is limited and availability is not guaranteed. A list of suggested accommodation options can be found on the event website.

What type of car do I need?

For the Variety Resurrection Run, you can bring your Bash Car or similar, a 4WD, or any vehicle you are happy to take down an unsealed (gravel or dirt) road or track. To take part, each car must have event signage displayed, carry a first aid kit and have a UHF CB two way radio that can operate on channel 20 (handheld is acceptable but must be 5 - watt). Full list of requirements is available from our website.
