PAGEANT QUEENS IN TITLE HUNT

THE build-up to next month's Miss World Australia competition continues for SA's finalists Yasya King, Tiana Della-Putta and Beza Mickan-White.

As part of the beauty pageant, all participants must volunteer and raise money for Variety SA, the Children's Charity, so the trio are each hosting their own fundraisers ahead of the national final in Melbourne next month.

Yasya, 22, is holding a black-tie Gold Heart Gala Dinner at Sfera's Suites & Convention Centre on June 25, featuring entertainment from local duo Kate and Antonio and Ukrainian Cossack dance performances in honour of her heritage.

Fellow finalist Tiana, 19, above with Yasya, is hosting a movie fundraiser - Emilia Clarke's new film Me Before You - at Trak Cinemas on June 17. Tickets to both events are still available.

Now based in Victoria,

Ethiopian-born Beza - who will still be representing SA in the national final - is holding her own Variety fundraiser in Melbourne this month.
