

Code of Conduct

When agreeing to the terms of the Code of Conduct you agree and acknowledge:

Participants are representatives of Variety SA and should conduct themselves in an appropriate non offensive manner.

Parents /Guardian Consent

Participants must ensure that parent or guardian consent is obtained before picking up or contacting children. Children must be accompanied by their parent/guardian if travelling in or on an Event vehicle.

Withdrawing Participants

Participants may not be permitted to continue to drive on the Event and may be requested to leave the Event immediately and without warning if in breach of, but not limited to, the following conditions;

- Actions that compromise the safety of the Event and or participants and or members of the general public
- Detection by the Police or Event Officials of driving whilst under the influence of drugs and or alcohol (in excess of the prescribed legal limit). The Event Chairman and Officials reserve the right to use breath detection or drug testing equipment to test participant drivers at any time during the Event.
- Detection by Police or the Event Officials of excessive speed, (in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Road Safety Act) and or dangerous driving.
- Assault – physical or verbal; including sexual harassment, bullying, racial abuse and any conduct that humiliates or degrades fellow participants or any other person. Variety SA will not tolerate conduct of this nature. Any incidents should be reported to the:
 - Event Chairman, verbally and in writing
 - Police at the first opportunity, (solely at the discretion of the person reporting the charge)
- Variety SA Event participants are expected to display mutual respect and dignity towards their fellow participants, contractors, volunteers, any member and or staff of Variety SA
- Bringing the name of Variety SA and or Aussie Muscle Car Run into disrepute
- Drunkenness
- Offensive and or lewd behaviour
- Tampering or altering with;
 - Road signs
 - Event caution or directional signs
 - Other vehicles
 - Other people's vehicles, property or possessions
- Vandalism
- Refusing to obey reasonable directions from the Event Chairman or Officials

Any participant ejected from the Event may be automatically excluded from any future Variety SA AMCR Events.

Variety SA will not be responsible for any costs incurred as a result of ejection from the Event.

Dispute resolution

The Event Chair, VSA CEO, AMCR Event Manager and AMCR Patron (on Event committee) are empowered to resolve disputes of any nature. The Chair and on Event Committee will hear evidence from all parties involved in the dispute and any witnesses in order to arrive at a decision. The On Event Committee is only formed in disputes of a serious nature. All other disputes are determined at the discretion of the Event Chair.

Rights to an appeal hearing after the Event

The Participant has the right to an appeal hearing after the completion of the Event via an impartial Tribunal hearing by Variety SA constituting Board members of Variety South Australia not attending the Event. The Tribunal will hear all grievances over the incident and then make a decision as to whether the person/s involved will be permitted to attend other and future Events. This clause does not affect the rights of the Event Chairman or the On Event Committee to withdraw an entrant whilst on the Event.

Illicit Drugs

The possession or use of any illicit drugs by a Participant will result in the person/s concerned being immediately withdrawn from the Event. Such persons may not be permitted to participate in any future Variety SA AMCR Events.

Additional conditions of Entry

Further conditions of entry may be drawn up by the Event Chairman and distributed in writing to all Event Participants wherever practicable, however during the period of the Event, the Event Chairman may specify further conditions verbally where it is impractical to provide notice of the same in writing to the Participants.

Conditions of entry are subject to change without notice.

The decision of the Event Chairman regarding any matter is final.

A breach of the Code of Conduct as defined in this document could damage the integrity of Variety SA and put at risk the future of the Event and the Charity.
